

Small Group Louvre Tour
September 4, 2026
Dunwoodie Group

Friday, September 4: Paris-Small Group Louvre Museum Tour

This afternoon, make your way to the tour meeting point-Arc Du Carrousel (under the arc du carrousel facing the Louvre Pyramid). Your tour is scheduled to begin at 2:30 pm, please arrive 30 minutes prior

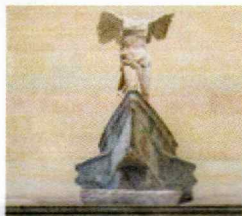

Located in the heart of Paris, the Louvre Museum is much more than a collection of art; it is a living witness to centuries of history. Before becoming a museum in 1793, this majestic building was one of the main residences of the kings of France. Its history-laden walls have witnessed royal intrigues, momentous events and emblematic moments that have shaped the nation. Today, this imposing enclosure extends over an area of 73,000 square metres and houses an incomparable collection of works of art spanning from ancient civilizations to the 19th century.

This fascinating tour will guide you through the museum's most outstanding departments, each housing a unique treasure that reveals the mysteries of different eras and cultures. You will discover Egyptian Antiquities, immersing you in the magic and symbolism of one of the most intriguing cultures in history. Greek, Etruscan and Roman Antiquities will transport you to the world of ancient gods and heroes, while Oriental Antiquities will immerse you in the cultural richness of forgotten civilizations.

The corridors of the Louvre Museum will take you to the Arts of Islam, where creativity and spirituality intertwine in exquisite forms. Marvel at the Paintings, ranging from Renaissance masterpieces to the most intricate creations of classical art. Sculptures come to life through forms that defy marble to tell stories and express emotions. The Objects of Art and Graphic Arts complete the experience, showing you the diversity of artistic expressions that have enriched humanity over the centuries.

Undoubtedly, the masterpieces that everyone longs to contemplate will stand out: Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa, whose enigmatic smile has captivated generations; the Venus de Milo, a sculpture that embodies the timeless grace and beauty of ancient Greece; and Jacques-Louis David's Coronation of Napoleon, an artistic testament to imperial grandeur.

At the conclusion of this inspiring guided tour, you will have free time to explore the museum at your own pace. You can enjoy a well-deserved rest, sample culinary delights in the cafés and browse for special souvenirs in the souvenir shops. Your experience at the Louvre Museum will be an immersion into the richness of culture, art and history, a unique opportunity to connect with the legacy of humanity and nurture your passion for knowledge and creativity.

End of Services

Thank you for choosing Dunwoodie Travel & EZ Italy/EZ Europe!